

Meissner Tierney Fisher & Nichols S.C. Announces Garrett A. Soberalski as a Shareholder of the Firm

MILWAUKEE - Meissner Tierney Fisher & Nichols S.C. is pleased to announce that Garrett A. Soberalski will become a shareholder of the firm on January 1, 2021.

“We are delighted and proud to announce Garrett’s promotion to shareholder status,” said firm president Tom Nichols, “Garrett is an excellent attorney and we are confident that he will continue to bolster the caliber and quality of our practice for years to come.”

Garrett graduated from Marquette University Law school in 2012, and clerked for the Honorable G. Michael Halfenger in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Wisconsin. At the firm, he has developed a unique practice helping clients navigate complex commercial and real estate litigation as well as commercial real estate transactions. His litigation practice includes work in both state and federal courts, and his clerkship and experience have enabled him to develop a deep understanding of the nuances of the rules and procedures required in federal litigation. His real-estate transactional practice includes work drafting and negotiating various agreements involving the purchase and sale of commercial real property, the creation of easements, commercial leases, and the creation and governance of condominiums, as well as skill in handling novel and difficult title issues.

“I’m very excited to become a shareholder of Meissner Tierney Fisher & Nichols S.C.,” Garrett expressed, adding “I have had the great experience of working with and learning from the very talented group of shareholders this firm already has, and I can’t wait to join them in carrying on Meissner Tierney’s long-standing history of excellent legal work and advice. I could not be prouder to be given the opportunity to become a shareholder at this firm.”

Garrett received his undergraduate degree from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln in 2007 with high distinction, and graduated magna cum laude from Marquette University Law School.

You can view Garrett’s full attorney bio here.