Kahler Slater Promotes Jeff Piette, AIA to Vice President

(MILWAUKEE, WI—February 2, 2021) Kahler Slater, an award-winning international architecture, interior design, environmental branding, and strategic advisory services firm, is pleased to announce the promotion of Jeff Piette, AIA to Vice President. With this promotion, Piette will serve on Kahler Slater’s 9-person Strategic Planning Team responsible for setting the long term direction of the firm and overseeing Kahler Slater’s strategic plan.

“Jeff’s leadership at Kahler Slater is outstanding. His market expertise, dedication to client service, mentoring skills and outlook on strategic firm growth are second to none. We also can’t say enough about the fantastic portfolio he has built,” said Al Krueger, Kahler Slater Executive Vice President.

Piette has been part of the Kahler Slater team for 27 years and has served as the Team Leader of the Higher Education and Sports + Recreation studio for the past 13 years. He has dedicated his career to designing community and collegiate sports, recreation and wellness environments. “Jeff is an MVP for his clients and for Kahler Slater. With his Vice President promotion, we are acknowledging his many contributions to his team and the firm along with his leadership ability,” said George Meyer, Kahler Slater CEO.

As Vice President and Team Leader, Piette will continue to spearhead Kahler Slater’s work in the dynamic sports, recreation and wellness market sector. “We have an incredibly passionate and talented team,” said Piette. “My role as Vice President will be focused on helping guide the firm’s plan and growing our presence nationally, while encouraging and nurturing our next generation of team and project leadership. I’m excited to take on this elevated leadership role for the firm.”
