First Look Family Law Relocates to Larger Offices Due to Staff Growth

Milwaukee, Wis. – October 13, 2021 – First Look Family Law has moved to larger offices in Brookfield. The news is shared by Karyn Gimbel Youso, attorney and owner of First Look.

Youso said, “Hiring new people means needing more space, and we onboarded Attorney Amy K. Peterselli a month ago. We have moved to a new location in the Enterprise Credit Union building where we now have multiple offices and conference rooms for our mediation practice, and lots of great light. We were bursting out of our former space, and the move has been comfortable, and we have more room to grow.”

Looking for consultation in divorce proceedings, individuals need proper guidance to get the best possible outcome. First Look Family Law’s founding attorney Karyn Youso has been practicing law for over 29 years and tailors her guidance to the specific circumstances of the divorce case. She works with each client’s unique situation to offer realistic and effective strategies, to protect what’s important to them.

Youso continued, “We have benefitted from having our office in Brookfield since 2018, and I’ve personally worked in Brookfield since 2000. Aside from the great central location, since we serve clients throughout the metro Milwaukee/Waukesha area, I’ve found that the Brookfield Chamber of Commerce is outstanding and a great resource for business.”
