WARM UP WITH NONSTOP FLIGHTS FROM MKE TO BEACHES AND PALM TREES

MILWAUKEE (December 20, 2021) – Thanks to additional airlines that have entered the Milwaukee market in 2021, Milwaukee Mitchell International Airport (MKE) is excited to announce that this winter there will be more nonstop flights from Milwaukee to warm weather destinations than ever before.

“We know how important it is for travelers to escape the cold weather and enjoy a warm vacation in Mexico, the Caribbean, or Florida,” Airport Director Brian Dranzik said. “It’s great to see that so many airlines are growing with more nonstop flights from Milwaukee to these amazing winter destinations. Airlines are adding these flights because more people are choosing our hometown airport. As we all continue to fly from MKE, we will continue to get more service from the airlines.”

New warm weather flights offered this winter include new daily nonstop service to Miami on American Airlines and daily nonstops to Fort Lauderdale, Fort Myers, Los Angeles, Orlando and Phoenix on Spirit Airlines. This Thursday, Spirit starts service to Cancun three times per week. Sun Country just launched new flights to Cancun, Fort Myers, and Phoenix last week.

Fares are low thanks to increased competition on many routes. For example, five different airlines are flying nonstop from Milwaukee to Fort Myers, Florida this winter. Four airlines are flying to Cancun, Orlando, Phoenix, and Tampa. Travelers are encouraged to book early to get the lowest fare.

Apple Vacations and Funjet Vacations are offering nonstop charter flights from Milwaukee to Cancun, Mexico; Los Cabos/Cabo San Lucas, Mexico; Puerto Vallarta, Mexico; Montego Bay, Jamaica; and Punta Cana, Dominican Republic from now through early April. MKE also offers an inexpensive Coat Check service for travelers who don't want to bring their heavy winter coats to the beach. The service is available for all flights in the Summerfest Marketplace store in the main terminal, pre-security. The cost is just $2 per day.
