Park Bank Names Josh Marron Executive Vice-President - Chief Banking Officer

MADISON, WI (February 2022) — Park Bank recently announced that Josh Marron has been promoted to the role of Executive Vice-President - Chief Banking Officer.

Since joining Park Bank in 2016, Marron has consistently led the bank's business development efforts and has played a significant role in Park Bank's growth and success.

Marron has managed the Business Banking and Private Banking departments since 2018 when he joined the Senior Management team, and will assume additional responsibilities to include managing the bank's Finance and Credit Administration functions.

"Josh's ambition, ingenuity, and innovation have enhanced every aspect of Park Bank's impact on the Dane County community," said Jim Hegenbarth, President and CEO of Park Bank. "I am excited to see the next phase of growth at Park Bank as Josh continues to make an immense impact on our associates, clients and the community we serve."

In support of the Dane County community, Marron has served on various boards, including the YMCA of Dane County and the Salvation Army of Dane County. In addition, his ongoing community service extends to organizations such as 100 Men of Dane County, WBA Government Relations Committee, the Dane Workforce Housing Fund and the Graduate School of Banking Alumni Council.

"One of the most important principles we adhere to is that drive and ambition come from the heart. That achievement means different things to every client we serve," said Marron. "Throughout my tenure at Park Bank, it's been my privilege to partner with businesses and consumers towards achieving their goals. I'm honored to take the next step in my career and remain committed to furthering Park Bank's reputation for serving our community as Executive Vice-President - Chief Banking Officer."
