Encore Studio is GROWING!

CEO KelsyAnne Schoenhaar announced that Encore Studio for the Performing Arts was awarded a $50,000 capital grant from the PRL Keystone Foundation. We will be expanding our studio and theatre space over the next several months to accommodate our growing repertory theatre company as well as more patrons for productions. We will not be moving but using the entire building we are presently leasing.

Same address! New performance space!

To celebrate our last show in the Mary DuPont Wahlers Theatre, Encore Studio for the Performing Arts is going places we've never been before.

Off The Wall is an evening of live improv! Featuring local guest artists from Monkey Business Institute and Atlas Improv Co., our seasoned Encore artistic staff, and our repertory company of actors; this promises to be an exciting event! In addition to the live improv, we will be showing some of our short films!

Come with your suggestions and your appetite for adventure!

Encore Off the Wall--January 10th- January 25th 2025

ABOUT ENCORE STUDIO FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS:

Founded in September of 2000, Encore was the first professional theatre company for people with disabilities in Wisconsin and one of very few in the United States. Encore's home theatre is the Mary Dupont Wahlers Theatre at Encore Studio, in Madison, WI; Encore also plays to conferences throughout Wisconsin, and beyond. Many of the Encore repertory actors have appeared elsewhere in professional theater, video and film. Encore has produced over fifty original productions focusing on people with disabilities.
